

RETURN OF R. R. TO PRIVATE OWNERS IS "FINAL TRIAL"

Government Operation Not Satisfactory
Declares Hoover

MUST HAVE COMPETITION

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The return of the railroads to private ownership March 1, will mean the pining of private operation on its "final trial" in the opinion of Herbert Hoover, expressed tonight in his inaugural address as president of the American Institute of Mining Engineers. At the same time Mr. Hoover attacked government operation of either railroads or shipping as "experiments in Socialism necessitated by the war" to which there were many fundamental objections.

"No scheme of political appointment," Mr. Hoover said, "has ever yet been devised that will replace competition in its selection of ability and character. Both shipping and railroads have today the advantage of many skilled personnel, sifted out in a hard school of competition and even then the government operation of these enterprises is not proving satisfactory. Therefore the ultimate inefficiency that would arise from the deadening paralysis of bureaucracy has not yet had full opportunity for development. Already we can show that no government under pressure of ever-present political or sectional interests can properly conduct the risks of extension and improvement or can be freed from local pressure to conduct unwarranted services in industrial enterprise."

On Final Trial.
After referring to the handicaps imposed upon business thru the failure of transportation facilities to grow with the country, Mr. Hoover continued:
"The return of the railroads to the owners places predominantly private operation upon its final trial. If instant energy, courage and large vision in the owners should prove lacking in meeting the immediate situation we will be faced with a reaction that will drive the risks of extension and improvement or can be freed from local pressure to conduct unwarranted services in industrial enterprise."

The speaker asserted that as government officials could not engage in handling in fixing rates, they must take range in rigid regulation and in fixed rates.

"The effect of our large fleet," he went on, "in the world's market is thus to hold up rates for so long as this great fleet holds a fixed rate others will only barely underbid. If we hold up rates an increasing number of our ships will be idle as the private fleets grow."

The problem of the relationship between employer and employee was next discussed by Mr. Hoover. He asserted that the country had until recently "greatly neglected the human factor that is so large an element in our productivity" and that this neglect had accumulated thru the discontent and unrest thruout the industrial population.

Personal Co-operation
"I am daily impressed," he said "with the fact that there is but one way out, and that is to again re-establish thru organized representation that personal co-operation between employer and employee in production that was a binding force when our industries were smaller. The attitude of refusal to participate in collective bargaining with representatives of the employees' own choosing is the negation of this bridge to better relationship."

Mr. Hoover declared he was convinced that the vast majority of American labor fundamentally wishes to cooperate in production and that this basis of good will can be organized and the vitality of production recreated.

INVESTIGATE UOLICY OF SHIPPING BOARD

Recommendations Followed by Board in Regard to Sale of Thirty German Liners Will Be Submitted to Senate by Payne.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Recommendations as to the future policy to be followed by the shipping board in regard to the sale of the thirty German passenger ships which have stirred up a controversy involving several branches of the government, will be submitted to the senate commerce committee tomorrow by Chairman Payne.

A report on the bids received for the vessels is expected to be laid before the committee together with estimates of the necessary amounts for refitting the ships for passenger service. Chairman Payne stated tonight that the sale of the craft would not be considered until the situation had been laid before the senate committee.

The end of the auction for receiving bids on the vessels came quickly today with only offer made out of a choice of nineteen ships. The largest vessels of the line, including the Leviathan, George Washington, Agamemnon and Mount Vernon were passed over without arousing the interest of the shipping men who yesterday bid millions for the liners in the groups.

The single offer made was a bid of $550,000 by the Acme Operating Corporation for the 4500 ton steamer, Otsego.

Under the announcement at the opening of the auction, no action will be taken on the bids without the sanction of the senate commerce committee and the house merchant marine committee and pending the decision of the injunction proceeding brought by William Randolph Hearst, as a taxpayer, to prevent the sale of any of the vessels.

Officials of the board today expressed disappointment at the light bidding at both sessions of the auction. Sealed bids for the thirty ships opened on January 29, offered a total of over $32,000,000 for the fleet, but allowing for the various groupings which included the same vessels at the auction the total offering represents only $21,850,000 for fifteen ships.

Opposition to the sale continued in the senate today. Chairman Jones of the commerce committee introducing a resolution to forbid sale of the vessels and requiring the shipping board to re-fit the craft.

President Wilson today worked on his reply to the senate resolution calling for information as to whether a secret agreement exists between the shipping board and Great Britain over the disposal of the German ships. It will be an emphatic denial, it is understood.

GREAT CONCERN OVER FATE OF AMERICANS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Monday Feb. 16.—(By The Associated Press).—There is much uneasiness concerning the fate of twenty Americans at Marash, north of Aleppo, Turkey.

The last word was received from them on Feb. 1 when their food supply was cut short and the Christian refugees were in a state of terror.

In occupying Cilicia the French troops frequently took over American mission properties and schools which were the best buildings and the easiest to defend. Consequently, the Americans were immediately regarded by the Turks as Frenchmen. There have been many conflicts between the French occupying the district and the Turks.

Constantinople, nationalistic delegate from Angora, told the correspondent that James Perry and Frank S. Johnson, representative of the American Y. M. C. A. killed recently near Aintab, were mistaken for Frenchmen by natives who had a grudge against Americans and declared that Americans were not in danger in Anatolia, Cilicia.

UNIVERSAL TRAINING STILL BEFORE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Despite the decision of house Democrats to oppose it and altho "a majority sentiment of Republicans also is against it, universal military training Representative Olney, Democrat of Massachusetts today declared in the house will continue an "issue until enacted into law."

Representative Olney, who is a member of the house military committee disclosed that ten of its members favor including the plan in the army re-organization measure while nine oppose it and one is doubtful.

Taking issue with Republican Leader Mondell, who recently said the system would cost one billion dollars a year, Mr. Olney cited figures compiled by the war department showing that 350,000 men could be trained in 1921 for $59,800,000; 400,000 in 1922 for $113,000,000; 450,000 in 1923 for $127,000,000 and 465,000 in 1924 for $131,000,000.

COMMITTEE WILL RECOUNT NEWBERRY VOTES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Senator Watson, Republican of Indiana, today was made chairman of the senate sub-committee which will recount the ballots in the Michigan senatorial contest.

COMPROMISE ON PEACE TREATY IN A TANGLED STATE

Possibility on Agreement on Pact is Minimized

DEBATE ON ARTICLE TEN

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The peace treaty compromise negotiations got into such a tangled state today that despite claims in some quarters that the lines on both sides were weakening the treaty's best friends in the senate minimized the possibilities of agreement.

"It looks as tho we might come out at the same hole we went in," said Senator Hitchcock the Democratic leader after another effort to obtain Republican aid in modifying the article ten reservation adopted at the last session of congress. He added that the Republicans apparently had rejected all compromise proposals on the subject and that he was certain the treaty never would be ratified unless they did compromise.

At the same time some senators in the mild reservation group of Republicans indicated their belief that the Democratic proposal might command considerable Republican strength while some Democrats predicted that enough Democrats to insure ratification would break away and vote for the Republican reservation as it stands. The result was a muddled situation in which the party leaders on both sides appeared uncertain as to what might be the next development.

Party Democrats had been pledged tonight for the alternate Article 10 reservation presented by Sen. Hitchcock, and he said he hoped eventually to have the support of one or two more. It would take forty-nine votes to make up the simple majority draft and to the seven or more Republican votes required for this operation fifteen more would have to be added to insure final ratification by a two-thirds vote. It was pointed out, however, that Republican leaders might be placed in an awkward position should majority leaders displace the Republican reservation with one drawn up by Democrats. How many Republicans would swing over to the ratification vote is problematical.

The senate made no progress today towards a vote on the proposed modifications in the Republican reservations the entire day being occupied by debate on other features of the treaty.

WILL BATTLE FOR YACHTING HONORS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—England and the United States will ally in a battle for the yachting supremacy of the seas beginning July 15 when the first race for the America's cup is scheduled over the Sandy Hook course. This was formally announced by the New York Yacht Club late today.

Accepting the challenge of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club of Belfast, Ireland, Sir Thomas will attempt to win the world-famous yachting trophy with his challenger Shamrock IV while the New York Yacht Club will defend the cup won in 1951 with either the Resolute or Vanitie, launched for the first time in 1913.

The regatta will be held off Sandy Hook beginning on Thursday, July 15, and every alternate day, not counting Sundays, until one of the competing yachts has won three out of five races.

MARYLAND REJECTS WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE

(By The Associated Press)
ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 17.—The Maryland general assembly today decisively rejected the federal amendment for woman suffrage. In the senate the vote was 18 to 9 against ratification.

In the house 64 against and 29 for ratification. Big delegations of suffragists came down from Baltimore. The committee on federal relations heard both sides.

Judge Harry Covington argued for the suffragists and Judge Oscar Leser for the Antis. As was expected the bulk of the vote for ratification was furnished by the Republicans.

HOLD HEARINGS ON INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM PROPOSALS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 17.—Dr. Herbert E. Bigelow of Cincinnati, Ohio, chairman of the Ohio constitutional convention in 1912, was subjected to a severe grilling on his war record today by Delegates Douglas Sutherland of the Illinois constitutional convention at the close of an all day hearing on initiative and referendum proposals. Initiative and referendum arguments were temporarily put aside by Dr. Bigelow and Delegate Sutherland, while the convention member attacked Dr. Bigelow's loyalty and the Ohio man countered with statements in his own defense.

Delegate Sutherland opened the attack by reading a prayer alleged to have been made by Dr. Bigelow at Cincinnati in which he invoked Devine aid for the Kaiser and other crowned heads of Europe. Dr. Bigelow denied he had made the prayer read by Delegate Sutherland.

A motion to exclude personal questions was made but Dr. Bigelow protested against the motion and after it was withdrawn he told of his record during the war. He was a Christian minister before the United States entered the war, he said, and was for peace. He said when America became involved he accepted the stand taken by the government, "as only an anarchist would refuse to go on."

"I offered to enlist in the army," Dr. Bigelow continued, "before the order was issued barring men of my age. Boys came to me and asked me what to do. I told them to put hate out of their hearts and go to war. Some of them I talked came back mutilated."

CROSS EXAMINATION OF MARTENS STARTED

Senate Committee Will Seek to Find When He Came to United States and for What Purpose.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, Russian soviet representative in the United States, was started today on what promises to be a long cross examination on why he came to the United States and as to the attitude of those he represents to this country. In behalf of the senate foreign relations investigating sub-committee, Wade H. Ellis, counsel, pushed a line of questioning which was taken to involve challenge of Martens' oft repeated statement that he has no purpose here but to secure recognition of the soviet government and to open trade.

Reading from the Russian soviet constitution and from articles by Bucharin, intimated now to be assistant commissar for foreign affairs of the soviet, Attorney Ellis sought to draw Martens into admission that the Russian idea called for constant revolutionary activities of its adherents and represents and for attack on all other constituted authorities in the world.

Mr. Ellis began by demanding a copy of all the soviet government instructions to Martens. The self-styled ambassador renewed a previous refusal to furnish these, saying he would not divulge the names of couriers who travel between him and Moscow and other confidential matters.

Examination which followed was designed to bring out the extent of Martens' support of the soviet constitution's call for general revolution, dictatorship of the proletariat and the necessity of making secure the revolution by destroying all governments recognizing capital.

Ex-senator Hardwick of Georgia, counsel for Martens, protested at the questions as involving more than the political opinions of his client but was overruled by Chairman Moses.

BENSON HEADS SHIPPING BOARD

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Rear Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations during the war and now on the retired list, was selected by President Wilson to succeed John Barton Payne as a member of the shipping board.

Admiral Benson's nomination will not be sent to the senate until Chairman Payne winds up several pressing matters now before the board before taking over the office of secretary to the board.

Ex-senator Frank K. Lane, whose resignation is effective March 1. It was said at the white house that this probably would take about a month.

Dixon, Ill., Feb. 17.—Fire this afternoon destroyed the Dixon Opera House Building with a loss of $100,000. It did $20,000 damage to the E. H. Rickard building adjoining and slightly damaged the Baptist church.

The Opera House Building was occupied by eight business houses, offices and the Dixon Theatre. It was destroyed in 1903 by fire but was rebuilt using the same stone walls.

MANY TELEGRAMS READ TO JURY IN NEWBERRY TRIAL

Huge Sums Distributed Among Railroad Men

DESCRIBE NAVY FILM

(By The Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 17.—Group testimony marked the Newberry elections conspiracy trial today. Nearly half the time was consumed reading telegrams to the jury. For the rest there was a review of the work of Allen K. Moore among the railroad men of the state; a presentation of the Cummins-Escott bill with its guarantee of earnings is an invitation to waste and extravagance.

Calling attention to the colossal savings in economies and efficiencies under federal operation the letter said a reversion to private ownership would mean "an increase in rates of from 25 to 50 percent. An addition of $1,000,000,000 a year."

Among the reason cited by the employees' representatives against return of the railroads were:
According to the reports of the director general, the railroads operated as a unified system on a paying basis, "or are in a fair way to earn all charges against them and possibly to accumulate a surplus."

Validation of watered securities, alleged to be the main object of those seeking return, would mean the subsidizing of the railroad industry.
The Cummins-Escott bill with its guarantee of earnings is an invitation to waste and extravagance.

Return of the railroads at this time is an invitation to still further industrial disturbances which are born of labor shortage on one hand and the high cost of living on the other.
Water transportation can never be developed with the railroads in private hands. A matter of vital interest the letter concludes "is the enlisting of the employees so that they will work harmoniously, willingly and efficiently. It is a colossal waste to exclude from railway operation the contributions of two million men with life-long experience in the railway industry."

Some Generous Fees
A towman told how Moore twice climbed the ladder to visit him, leaving in all $40 "to buy gasoline."

A baggage agent at Bay City received $65 from Moore, paid out $10 to each of three friends who helped him circulate petitions and kept the rest.
An engine house foreman at Grayling received $45, gave $5 to a pet dog and kept the rest, explaining that he "passed cards from the pocket" to visitors at his office.

At Flint a warehouse foreman was given $10 and 150 pamphlets which he left where visitors to his office could take them and a car house foreman in the same city said some stranger gave him $10 for petition work, but he couldn't remember where they mailed the petitions after they were filled.

John H. Murray of Detroit, a brother of George Murray, told of getting 250 from Moore. "This was Moore's part," he said, "in the Cummins-Escott bill. He paid out $82 to men who assisted him and retained the balance."

The Dundee testimony was aimed at Emory Mills, and Fred E. Cronenwett, defendants from that village. The men who dealt with Mills had poor memories, but one of Cronenwett's men explained how he got paid.

"Cronenwett went by me fast and gave me $5," said this witness.
Two young women from a Detroit film exchange, Genevieve Collins and Helen Balman, described how "our navy was sent around the state."

It was offered free to exhibitors. Miss Balman referred to the film as a "gratification." On cross-examination Martin W. Littleton asked her one question: "Was the Ford weekly sent free to theatres?"

Miss Balman answered affirmatively before the government could interpose an objection, but Judge Sessions ordered both questions and answer out of the record.

PRESIDENT MAY WITHDRAW THE VERSAILLES PACT

Threat Comes Over Proposed Adriatic Settlement

REPLY MADE BY COUNCIL

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The allied supreme council has been informed by President Wilson it was disclosed today, that if the proposed Adriatic settlement to which the American government is not a party is put into force the United States might have to consider withdrawing the treaty of Versailles from senate consideration.

The president's communication was not in the nature of a threat in the common sense of the term, it was said, but was merely a statement of a situation in which the United States might find itself if asked to subscribe to agreements in which it had no hand in the making and to which it was opposed.

The explanation was made in official quarters that the league of nations was to be the instrument for enforcing various arguments as to boundaries and the like and that if a situation arose where the president would have to consider withdrawing the latter he also would have to consider withdrawing the former.

An early announcement at the white house characterized as an "absolute falsehood" the statement in the Echo De Paris that President Wilson's communication contained a postscript bearing ten lines of a threat to withdraw the treaty from the senate.

It was later explained that those who made the statement had spoken without full and complete information.

At first, too, the president's communication was referred to as a "memorandum" and was described as containing only eight or ten lines. It subsequently was disclosed, however, that the communication finally sent was in the form of a note and that it covered two or three pages. This note, it was explained, was prepared from a memorandum to Secretary Lansing to which the president dictated and sent to the state department.

PIONEER SUFFRAGE WORKERS HONORED

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—The League of Women Voters, successor to the National Woman Suffrage society today honored more than a hundred women who have done important work for suffrage. Among those were the pioneers, a procession of grey-haired women who have been in the suffrage fight since 1880.

Carrie Chapman Catt, received a large sapphire pin recognizing her long service to the cause. The delegates cheered when Jane Adams was called forward to receive her certificate for service in the suffrage cause. Mary Garrett and Mrs. George Bass, leaders in the national women's divisions of the Republican and Democratic parties received certificates at the same time with the invocation by Mrs. Catt not to call each other names. They shook hands while the delegates laughed and cheered.

More than $4,000 was raised to carry on work of the league.

URGES CO-OPERATION OF SMALL DAILIES

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—A. W. Peterson, publisher of the Waterloo, Iowa, Evening Courier, and president of the Inland Daily Press association, proposed today at the annual meeting of the 128 member publishers that all small newspapers adopt a uniform system of accounting so that unsuccessful publishers could profit by the methods of the more successful.

"The great increase in cost of production and the new income tax law make it absolute necessary for publishers to band together," Mr. Peterson said. "There must be closer co-operation between us," he added, "if we are to withstand these conditions."

URGES CONTINUANCE OF FEDERAL OPERATION

Labor Leader Declares Return of Railroads to Private Owners Will Lead to Bankruptcy

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—"Urging that federal operation of the railroads be continued at least two more years, R. M. Jewell, acting president of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor in a letter to members of congress today, expressed the opinion that return of the roads to private ownership at this time would lead inevitably to their bankruptcy which might easily result in a national panic and in turn bring "world wide bankruptcy."

"For two years traffic has been short on the roads," Mr. Jewell said. "It has been sent over selected routes. A great part of the mileage of the country is not earning expenses and fixed charges. Receiverships are inevitable if the railroads are unscrambled and each left to shift itself."

Mr. Jewell said he sent the letter in behalf of organizations which represent directly 2,000,000 workers.

The letter was signed by the heads of the fourteen railroad unions including the four big brotherhoods, who have been acting as a unit in urging, first, government ownership of the rail systems and, second, continuation of government control as an alternative.

Calling attention to the colossal savings in economies and efficiencies under federal operation the letter said a reversion to private ownership would mean "an increase in rates of from 25 to 50 percent. An addition of $1,000,000,000 a year."

The aircraft report presented in congress has in it figures that challenge attention. Gross extravagance and waste are shown, to say nothing of business inefficiency. It will not do to waive this report aside as actuated by mere partisanship. The figures are too significant to be thus ignored.

SECRETARY BAKER READY TO SHARE BLAME

There is a rumor that Secretary Baker has placed his resignation in the hands of President Wilson, because he is unwilling to have Mr. Lansing made the scapegoat in the matter of the cabinet meetings held during the president's illness. Mr. Baker, it is understood, desires to share in the responsibility for whatever violation of constitutional authority may have been.

This stand on the part of the war secretary is strong and manly. There are grave charges of inefficiency pending against the secretary of war but in this personal relationship with Mr. Lansing he has shown himself very much a man.

RE-ELECT THE ALDERMEN NOW SERVING

It now appears that the suggestion of permitting present members of the council to be re-elected without opposition is meeting with general favor. Aldermen Flynn, William, Cain and Chapin in the drawing of lots last spring drew the one year terms. The council has thus far made an excellent record and there are a number of projects which have been undertaken and are not yet complete. The sentiment is, therefore, widespread that it would be unfortunate from a city standpoint to change the personnel of the board of aldermen at this time.

Good business sense and a recognition of the best interests of the city both dictate the course of returning to the council aldermen now serving.

LAKE HARMONY

It was in many respects a notable meeting of citizens which was held at the court house Tuesday night. Subscribers to the Jacksonville water supply fund assembled to hear the report of the committee and to adopt a plan for safeguarding the investment made.

There were perhaps 100 in the company and there was at no time a dissenting voice. The committee was commended for having been true to its trust and the plan for the future was unanimously approved.

As has been so often said before, this water project has meant more than the securing of a supply of water for it has resulted in a unity of purpose and effort that has been unfortunately lacking in previous years.

The subscribers to the water fund have certainly done a real service to their city and to the community. Any one who attended the meeting last night could well understand the appropriateness of one suggestion which has been made, that the body of water which has been acquired by the building of the reservoir might well be called Lake Harmony.

ASKS BOARD VIEWS ON TEACHERS SALARIES

Editor of Journal: Your recent articles with reference to increasing the salaries of our public school teachers has impressed me. There can be no question but that our teachers are underpaid. But what is going to be done? The Board of Education is submitting a question to the people next Saturday which if carried in the affirmative will enable the Board to increase our "Educational Fund" to 2 percent. But I am told that many legitimate expenditures may be made from this "Educational Fund" without increasing the salaries of the teachers and I have never observed anything officially or otherwise which would indicate what its intention to do with the funds in case the election is carried. Let us not fly under misleading colors. If the Board intends to help the financial situation of our embarrassed teaching force this year and next and will say so, then I am for it. If they have other intentions let us have their explanation. In any event why not let us have an expression to the people who pay the freight? Yours truly, A Tax-payer.

THE VETERANS ARE PASSING

The death of Major C. E. McDougall impresses the sad fact that veterans of the war of the rebellion are fast passing on to the other shore. Every year takes its quota from the ranks of "the boys in blue" and at no distant date when the roll is called there will be silence.

Major McDougall had a war record of which any man might well be proud. His years of service to his country were fruitful in bravery and faithfulness. Something of this same spirit characterized his after life and he lived usefully and well.

For all his sturdy soldierly qualities, Major McDougall had a gentleness of heart and manner that few men acquire. He was unfailingly courteous and kind, ever ready with sympathy and "to lend a hand." By his passing Jacksonville loses a citizen of great personal worth, a man of fine ideals.

TEARING DOWN OUR SCHOOL BUILDINGS

In issue after issue The Herald and Examiner have called attention to the fact that our low salaries for teachers mean the refusal of competent men and women to enter the profession. They mean more. They mean that those who stay in teaching will teach less effectively.

Many teachers, trying to meet the situation, get outside jobs. In our great city colleges probably not one in three of the professors lives on his salary from the college. Two jobs are better than one for the pocketbook but not for the student. Teaching for such men tends to become mechanical. The easiest way is the best way. Like the college loafer, they may seek only enough information to "get by."

Many others worry themselves into futility. Good teaching demands thinking, and thinking requires concentration. The problems of the student receive secondary consideration; first come the problems of the grocer and the shoemaker. A man who is busy wondering how to pay his bills cares less and less when Columbus discovered America. While trying to make two plus two equal five, he is likely to make mistakes in the classroom about what they do equal.

What is a school, what is a university? A collection of personalities. Buildings, paraphernalia, everything else is secondary. The man who can train and educate himself is so rare that he may almost be regarded as a genius in his way. The teachers are not the schools, they ARE the schools. And in the end it would be cheaper and less wasteful to destroy the buildings and the equipment than to underpay the instructors.—Chicago Herald-Examiner.

POST NO. 319 HELD MEETING TUESDAY

Toutissant L'Oveture post American Legion, No. 319, held a meeting at its headquarters on West Morgan street Tuesday evening. The meeting was called to order by Commander J. L. Barney, who made a talk on "The Good of the Legion." Henry E. Nasby, adjutant, made a short address, telling of what was expected of each member. There was a large attendance of the members and five new members were taken in: Fred Shannon, Oscar Yates, Esque Mitchell, John N. Hughes and Chester Paxton.

Various Plans were discussed during the evening, the purpose being to give all matters early attention which will bring the work of the post up to date. At a late hour adjournment was taken until next Tuesday, Feb. 24.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

JOHN WILEY WRIGHT

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

John Wiley Wright. Among the pioneer citizens of Morgan county, was John Wiley Wright.

From the South. As were so many of our earliest settlers, Mr. Wright came from the South, by ancestry and birth. His family were from the Carolinas. They came to Tennessee during the War of 1812, and settled in Dixon county, where Mr. Wright, was born March 15, 1816.

"The country was rough and broken, and it seemed almost an impossibility to obtain a sufficient quantity of tillage land. The subject of this article, as a boy, was accustomed to the severe task of cleaning this wood land."

When Mr. Wright was fifteen years old his parents came to Illinois, and located near Springfield, township. Years later, they removed to this county, and located in the extreme southwestern part of it.

For years many of our election precincts in the country, were named for residents therein, so the southwest precinct of Morgan county, was named Wrights, in honor of John, father of John Wiley. There was one very dependable feature, among voters, about that division it was unquestionably Democratic. Murrayville was in Wright's precinct.

Marries.
 Mr. Wright became the husband of Miss Eliza E. Wyatt, daughter of Edward Wyatt.

when Wright was twenty-two years old, Mr. Wyatt was one of the prominent family of that name in that region.

B'comes a Farmer.

J. W. Wright, at first improved a part of his fathers land, but later, removed to section thirteen, having purchased a body of land there. At the time of his death, Jan. 18th, 1886, he possessed a farm of three hundred acres. "Thus, in his fifth year, passed away one of the most enterprising and public spirited citizens of Morgan county. As a kind and sympathetic neighbor, he was well known among the first families, his hand ever being open to assist the needy and distressed, while his house often sheltered the traveler caught in one of our fierce rain or snow storms." These traits show him to have possessed the better characteristics of early settlers. "He advocated and encouraged the system of public road improvements," without every seeing an "auto." He was a apparently a fine farmer. His son Capt. John E. Wright, was a member of the legislature of 1886-1888.

Wife and Children.

"The children, five of whom are yet residing in this precinct (1872), by their good conduct preserve the good name of the family. Mrs. Wright attends to the management of the large estate, and with the aid of her enterprising children, has kept the same in an excellent state of cultivation."

GET ACQUAINTED WITH YOUR BODY

A great deal of physical distress is the result of an interference with Nature's way to keep the body in health. For this reason, the more one knows about the body the better chance there is to resist disease and enjoy health. The human structure is so constituted that it is unnatural for disease to creep in. The nerve system is designed to give health to all organs and keep them in repair. But Chiropactic that wonderfully successful drugless health science, has discovered that disease of any part of the body, headaches, stomach trouble, rheumatism, etc., is due to an interference with the flow of nerve energy to these affected organs, caused by the pressure of the bones of the spine on certain nerves. The Chiropactor detects defects in the spine and by scientific adjustments relieves the pressure and removes the cause of the trouble.

When the distribution of energy is restored to normal, the weak and diseased organs are again supplied with sufficient power and the natural healing forces build up and strengthen them. Health follows naturally. Every progressive, thinking man and woman should know about and learn more of the mechanics of the human body. Such knowledge will be great benefit now and in the future, and especially when illness threatens. Chiropactic (KIRO-PRAC-TIC) has helped thousands back to health and strength, and it will help you and your loved ones and friends. Information gladly given.

Harry T. Morrey

The Birth of a Soul

A feud, a sacrifice and an intense love interest form the chain of events in the stirring dramatic feature "The Birth of a Soul." Harry T. Morrey has a dual role, which calls for some clever work. As Philip Grey, the man who realizes his own unworthiness and who is unwilling to mar the happiness of the girl he loves, Mr. Morrey does some very unusual acting. Equally strong and impressive is his interpretation of Charles Drayton. He draws two distinct types. The story is one that will thrill all who like a feature filled with action and exquisite scenery.

"The Banker"

It isn't often that one reads pleasant words about bankers—except after they are dead. Politicians are free to make capital by denouncing them, and too many have been all too willing to agree with the politician.

The fact of the business is, and it will be readily apparent to every man or woman who thinks over it for a while, there is in no community a man who does more for that community and takes as little out of it as the banker. You go to a lawyer for advice, and even though you may not act on that advice, he charges you for it. You are in doubt as to money affairs, maybe you stand to lose several thousand dollars in a transaction, and you consult a banker. He sits down with you, gives you freely of his time that is worth good money to him; he gives you the benefit of counsel that he has been years in learning, and you depart on your way with a mere thank you. And too often you forget before the end of the week that the banker did you a favor.

The banker has won the respect of his community simply by playing square with the public, and by devoting all the time he can possibly spare by making that community a brighter and better place in which to live. He stands willing to sacrifice his time and spend his money for the townspeople and the rural residents who could hardly carry on their business without his advice and friendship.

We believe the community of Jacksonville has ever found the bankers of the city and county ready and willing to assist not only their own customers, but those of other banks at any and all times, and to the best of their ability.

So, the next time you hear someone berating the bankers—don't waste your time. Do what sensible men should do under such circumstances—turn on your heel and walk away.

RATE HEARING WAS POSTPONED

No Action Now on Railway Company Petition for Increased Fares.

The hearing on the petition of the Jacksonville Railway Co. for an increase of fare was not held before the utility commission in Springfield yesterday. Supt. Gray was notified that the hearing had been indefinitely postponed and that there would be no action on the petition for some time to come.

It is not known here just what this action means, but it probably merely indicates that the commission has other matters of more pressing importance and that a crowded calendar will not permit of the Jacksonville hearing at this time.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The negotiations between James O'Grady representing Great Britain and M. When and where the conferences will be resumed has not been decided.

A despatch from Copenhagen last Friday said the conferences between O'Grady and Litvinoff ended in an agreement signed the previous day. Under this agreement it was stated that British war prisoners in Russia would be released and British civilians repatriated and that Russian war prisoners in England would be set free.

The denial on its own behalf of French newspaper reports that it was persuaded to modify and soften the first draft of the note to President Wilson by intervention exercised by Viscount Grey, Lord Robert Cecil and Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer.

The feeling at Italian headquarters in London with respect to the president's action is strong. Unofficially, it is spoken of as an attack upon Italy and his memorandum is described as an ultimatum. The Italians also feel that Italy's claims to consideration for her part of the war and the sacrifices made have never been quite appreciated by her allies.

The feeling in the Jugo-Slav camp is equally strong but has the element of emotion that the Slavs have a strong champion. They feel that they are at a disadvantage because Minister Trumbitch is outside the councils of the powers, and like the Italians, have their own grievance in that they consider that the fact they were in the war from the start and that their country was virtually ruined is not to be given the weight it deserves.

CLAIM DISORDERS IN MEXICO WILL END 1921

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Disordered conditions existing in Mexico will end 1921, according to a statement here today by General Salvador Alvarado founder and publisher of El Heraldillo de Mexico and El Heraldillo Semanario de Mexico City. General Alvarado is in the United States buying modern printing machinery for his newspapers.

He declared the disorder would end "because there is a powerful current opinion throughout the country in all places and classes toward peace re-organization."

If the vote in the presidential election next July is respected he said "an era of peace and work will begin eliminating the main source of trouble" between the United States and Mexico.

Conditions now point to the election of General Obregon as president, he asserted.

LETTERS WRITTEN TO MRS. CLUNGSTEN READ

MACOMB, Ill., Feb. 17.—Forty five notes, written by Dr. George Alverson to Mrs. Alice Clungsten while both were inmates of the county jail, were offered in court today by State's Attorney Hainline. The letters were said to contain declarations of the doctor's love for Mrs. Clungsten and also plans for their marriage, when they were released.

Mrs. Clungsten was unmoved by the reading of the notes. Dr. Alverson, who has maintained an air of nonchalance since first arrested, seemed displeased. The prosecution did not explain under what circumstances the letters were received from Mrs. Clungsten. Lawrence Clungsten was killed, the state claims, by arsenic poisoning at his home in Bushnell last July.

CHARGED WITH BRIBING REVENUE COLLECTOR

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Albert Lauer, secretary and treasurer of Briggs and Touvas was arrested today charged with giving $15,000 as a bribe to Charles Calner, an internal revenue collector. The bribe, it is alleged, was given to obviate payment of $150,000 income tax.

The company has steel and iron mills at Harvey and Blue Island, Ill. Lauer was held in $35,000 bond. The company's books, which were placed under guard, will be taken over by the government for investigation.

The company, it was said does an annual business in excess of $5,000,000.

COMMENT ON WILSON ADRIATIC NOTE

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, Monday, Feb. 16.—The whole Italian press comments at length on President Wilson's attitude toward the Adriatic question. The Ide Nazionale designates it "President Wilson's conspiracy with Jugo-Slavs." The Corriere d'Italia says:

"President Wilson might have launched his veto when a compromise was still under discussion. Doing it now has all the appearance of the wish to create the gravest embarrassment."

The Epoca says:

"Premier Davotich (Serbia) had practically accepted the compromise but Catchesich and Dr. Vesnich despatched to solicit intervention by President Wilson, senders of Jugo-Slavs. Mr. Willing him despatches from all the son was represented as the genius destined to save the Jugo-Slav nation from the imperialistic thirst of Italy."

The Tribuna says President Wilson's "treatment of Secretary Lansing is unprecedented, even among those dynastic despots who considered their ministers servants" and adds:

"After disposing of Mr. Lansing, President Wilson does not represent the will of the nation, even the will of his own."

President Wilson's veto of the Adriatic compromise the Message soys offends Great Britain and France and even more than Italy as the compromise was on British adhered and Italy consented. It considers it "the strangest pretense" on the president's part that should he claim the right to suppress any political idea in a purely European matter and impose in its stead his personal conception, thus "destroying with his own hands the moral and political basis of the league of nations of which he was the apostle."

POINDEXTER SPEAKS TO NATIONAL PRESS CLUB

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Senator Poindexter of Washington a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination told the National Press Club tonight that President Wilson's reported proposal to withdraw from European affairs over the Adriatic controversy was one of the best things the president ever had said. If the European powers only would force the plan to be carried out, declared the speaker the United States might be spared serious consequences.

The resignation of Secretary Lansing also was commented on at length by Senator Poindexter, who was the speaker of the evening at the club's series of "presidential nights."

"What is left of our mutilated cabinet," he said, "ought to be called the ground hog cabinet, it undoubtedly will be afraid of its shadow, and stay close in its hole for more than six weeks. One safe bet is that their minds will go along with his hereafter."

"Early as January 1919, it appears that Secretary Lansing entertained opposing views in matters of momentous consequence. It can readily be seen how he felt at the conference framing a treaty of peace, knowing it had no authority to resolve itself into a constitutional convention. Secretary Lansing, it now appears, revolted from the prospect. His loyalty to the president only fully appears when it is considered that he evidently placed it above his dislike for the schemes of world control which had been thrust upon the conference."

MORGENTHAU SOUNDS WARNING TO AMERICA

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—A warning that America will be involved in another European war within ten years unless she accepts her share of the responsibility of putting Europe and Asia on their feet again was uttered tonight by Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey before the students of Columbia University.

Mr. Morgenthau declared the United States in refusing to accept a mandate for Constantinople had lost an advantage which it can never regain. After asserting that "the magnificent talk of self-determination has all died away," and that the nations of Europe are "going back to the old order" the former ambassador continued:

"Unless militarism is destroyed and the new order of things established I predict that all you young men who fought in the late war will again be called upon to bear arms in a European war, and that all of you who were too young two years ago will receive your first call for service."

CALLIAUX TRIAL OPENS IN PARIS

(By The Associated Press)

Paris, Feb. 17.—Joseph Calliaux, former premier, today will face trial before the senate, acting as the high court on the specific charge of "having plotted against the external security of the state by maneuvers, machinations and intelligence with the enemy tending to favor the latter's enterprises against France and her allies."

Article 79 of the penal military code makes conviction of such an offense punishable with death. Calliaux has been in custody 25 months and 2 days. Parliamentary immunity was lifted in his case on Dec. 22, 1917, the prisoner himself asking that this action be taken as he said he wished to appear before judges and face his accusers.

He was arrested on January 14, 1918, on a warrant issued by Captain Bouchardon.

The senate is expected to sit as the high court for only three days each week, the other days being employed in the discharge of routine business. The trial, therefore is expected to last between two and three months. Theodore Lescauve, procurator of the French republic will conduct the case for the state, assisted by M. Regnault and Captain Mornet, who prosecuted Bolo Pasha, M. Lenjor and M. Duval, who were tried for treason. Calliaux will be defended by M. Demange, who was attorney for Captain Dreyfuss. Deputies Moragliaferi and Moutet will act as assistants.

CHICAGO TAKES STEPS TO CUT DOWN EXPENSES

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Chief of Police Garrity today protested against the proposal of the city finance committee to reduce the police force five hundred members to provide wage increases for other city employees.

"If the police force is cut down the city will be at the mercy of criminals," Chief Garrity said. "The department is crippled as it is."

The finance committee had recommended that the number of city employees be reduced by 1,200 leaving 10,000 to share in wage increases.

The finance committee recommended today that the following reductions be made:

Police department, $889,752; fire department, $520,626; health department, $127,444.

The elimination of the bureau of foods, markets and farm products in the health department was decided upon, the committee holding that the bureau had not justified its existence.

Kornfalfa Hog Feed

is a properly balanced feed. It is made of fine ground corn, ground barley, alfalfa meal, gluten, feed, tankage and molasses. All of these are good clean feeds in themselves. They are combined in just the right proportion. There is knowledge of hog feeding in every sack of Kornfalfa Hog Feed.

By all means buy a self-feeder or make one yourself. It is sensible, practical and efficient. Because we manufacture this feeder in large quantities, we can offer it to you at only $20.00, F. O. B. Kansas City (the actual cost of materials, making and handling.) It is six feet long, holds about six hundred pounds of feed and will take care of from thirty to forty hogs. Self-feeders of the same capacity made and sold for profit will cost you from $35.00 to $50.00.

The old-time method of meal-time feeding makes him ravenously hungry at feeding time. He bolts his food and overeats. His digestion isn't nearly so good as when he eats only a little at a time. When he gets real hungry he stops working for you. The thing he works with is feed and the self-feeder keeps it before him all the time.

Don't fail to use a self-feeder. Either buy one or build one yourself, today. If you want a Kornfalfa Self-Feeder, send us your order.

A Balanced Ration

Assuming you have decided to use a self-feeder, what will you put in it? Corn won't do. It hasn't enough grow stuff. It makes fat mostly. You need a feed that gives stretch to your hogs and at the same time fattens them. You don't need to make him stretch first and put weight on them afterwards. You can do both at the same time with the right kind of feed. You need a balanced ration.

We don't use humus, which is plain earth and has no feeding value, or ground screenings or oat hulls or similar trash in our feed. You would not buy these things in a sack by themselves, and because they have no value to you, we don't use them in making Kornfalfa Hog Feed. The hog cannot utilize them at a profit.

The tremendous success Kornfalfa Hog Feed has made is due to the fact that only good, clean feeds enter into it—the best of everything plus knowledge of hog feeding. Feeders are making hundreds of pounds of pork with from 336 to 400 pounds of Kornfalfa Hog Feed.

You need absolutely no other feed with Kornfalfa Hog Feed from weaning time to maturity. It is complete within itself. Just dump it into the self-feeder and let the hogs do the rest. Order from us today.

The report of J. W. Walton, trustee, was read showing receipts from subscriptions $122,921.25 and total expenditures of $112,714.10. The report further showed that there have been total subscriptions to the water fund of $133,900 and that at this time $11,050 remains unpaid.

Will Mortgage Land.
At the request of the committee, J. A. Bellatti, who has served as attorney for the committee, made an informal statement giving his ideas as to the most feasible plan to be followed during the coming year. Mr. Bellatti suggested that a permanent trustee be appointed and that the land acquired for reservoir purposes be deeded to the city, subject to a trust deed or mortgage. The notes or bonds accompanying the mortgage will be in denominations from $50 to $1,000; the interest to be paid semi-annually and a portion of the bonds or notes to be retired each year so that at the end of twenty years the whole indebtedness will be discharged.

Mr. Bellatti explained that this method would afford to the subscribers all the security there is, and that the expense would be very much less than if a corporation is formed to sell water to the city and to remain in existence thru a twenty year period.

Permanent Trustee Named.
After listening to Mr. Bellatti's statement, there was some discussion and then by unanimous vote the plan was adopted. It was the suggestion of Dr. Harker that the permanent trustee be chosen by ballot. The statement had previously been made that the F. G. Farrell & Co. bank did not wish to be considered in this matter and further, Mr. Bellatti said that the natural course would be to choose either the Ayers National Bank, Elliott State Bank or the Farmers State Bank & Trust Co. Ballots were accordingly passed with A. C. Metcalf, Thomas Hopper and J. F. Claus serving as tellers. The vote was: Ayers National Bank, 47; Elliott State Bank, 26; Farmers State Bank & Trust Co., 9. The Ayers National Bank was therefore designated as the permanent trustee.

Will Draw Lots.
That certificates of indebtedness to be called shall be chosen by lot. That is to say, the numbers of all the certificates unpaid shall be written on slips of paper, folded, dropped in a hat or receptacle, and enough drawn to make the amount to be paid at that time, and that notice, giving the numbers of the certificates, to be paid at any particular date, be published in some newspaper, printed and published in the City of Jacksonville, Illinois. The name of such newspaper to be specified, thirty days prior to the 15th day of March or September each year when such certificates are to be paid. Such notice to be published once.

All the Money Needed.
It was the statement of Dr. Harker that all of the money now in hand, the amounts still due on subscriptions and possibly several thousand more, will be required for completing the work delegated to the citizens committee.

Chairman Reeve just before adjournment spoke of the fine spirit of harmony that has prevailed among the citizens in making this water project possible. He said that the union of effort had meant much for Jacksonville and he hoped that attention could soon be turned to solving of the sewer question.

The details of the financial plan as outlined by Mr. Bellatti for the committee are given in the following statement, which the attorney prepared for the committee. A detailed financial statement of the trustee will be printed at another time.

Finance Plan Suggested.
Your committee would suggest the following as a desirable way to secure the money subscribed for the said Reservoir Fund.

That certificates of indebtedness be issued, signed by J. W. Walton, Trustee in denominations of $1000; $500; $100 and $50, to the aggregate of the total sum subscribed for the purpose of acquiring lands to be used for the impounding reservoir for storage of water for the use of the City of Jacksonville and the inhabitants thereof. That said certificates of indebtedness be numbered from one up. That all the said certificates of indebtedness be made payable to bearer and be due and payable on or before twenty years after date. That they be dated March 15, 1920, that they bear interest from March 15, 1920 at the rate of six per cent per annum payable semi-annually. That said certificates of indebtedness be made payable at some bank in the City of Jacksonville, and that semi-annual interest be made payable at such bank upon presentation of the proper interest coupons.

That not less than one twentieth of the total of said bonds be payable each year beginning with March 15, 1921. That for payment at that date at least one fortieth of the total amount of the bonds be collected and one fortieth on the 15th day of each September and March thereafter until all the interest coupons and certificates of indebtedness are paid.

That certificates of indebtedness to be called shall be chosen by lot. That is to say, the numbers of all the certificates unpaid shall be written on slips of paper, folded, dropped in a hat or receptacle, and enough drawn to make the amount to be paid at that time, and that notice, giving the numbers of the certificates, to be paid at any particular date, be published in some newspaper, printed and published in the City of Jacksonville, Illinois. The name of such newspaper to be specified, thirty days prior to the 15th day of March or September each year when such certificates are to be paid. Such notice to be published once.

Such certificates to show on their face what they are issued for, and how secured, and to expressly show that the holder agrees that the signer, J. W. Walton, Trustee, shall not be personally liable upon the bonds, but that the holder of the certificate will look only to the security of the trust deed or mortgage given to secure the certificate of indebtedness.

That to secure all of said certificates of indebtedness, the said J. W. Walton, Trustee, shall make and execute a proper trust deed or mortgage, covering all of the real estate purchased, for the purpose of said reservoir, and held by him as such trustee, such trust deed or mortgage, to contain all proper and necessary provisions to insure the payment of the certificates in the manner above specified.

To Exchange Certificates.
That on the 15th day of March 1920, such certificates of indebtedness so secured be exchanged with all holders of contributors certificates heretofore issued to subscribers to said reservoir fund, in amounts equal to the amount of such contributor's certificate, and that on March 15th at the time of making such exchange, interest be paid to the holder of the contributor's certificate surrendered, as provided in such contributor's certificate.

The trust deed or mortgage, to contain all the necessary provisions pertaining to the payment of the certificates of indebtedness and the interest thereon, and the calling each six months of the one fortieth part of the certificate of indebtedness, and the manner of drawing the numbers of the certificates to be paid each six months, and it shall be determined by the contributors at what bank the certificates and the semi-annual interest shall be payable so that all holders may know where to take their certificates on interest paying days to have the interest endorsed on them. And the mortgage or trust deed will, provide that the maker and his successors and assigns will cause to be deposited in such bank prior to the 15th day of March and September each year a sum of money sufficient to pay all interest accruing and to take up the certificates of indebtedness to be taken up at that date.

That the trust deed or mortgage be executed to such person or corporation as the contributors may determine.

That after the execution and delivery of said trust deed or mortgage, the said J. W. Walton, Trustee, by proper quit claim deed convey all of the real estate purchased for the purpose of said reservoir to the City of Jacksonville for the consideration of One Dollar, but subject, of course, to the trust deed or mortgage above provided for.

TAPS SOUND FOR MAJOR M'DOUGALL

Civil War Veteran Answers Final Summons at His Home Tuesday Morning—Had Resided in Jacksonville for Thirty Years.

Taps sounded for Major Charles E. McDougall at his home 523 South Main street at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Last June Major McDougall, suffered an attack of pneumonia, from which he never fully recovered. While he regained his strength so that he was able to get out for a time the gain was not permanent. For several weeks he has been growing weaker and death resulted from a general breaking down due to old age.

He was the son of John and Hannah McDougall, and was born near Rome, Oneida county, New York, August 11, 1838.

In 1859 he came to Illinois and located at Petersburg, Menard county, where he engaged in school teaching.

He was united in marriage in that city January 31, 1861, to Miss Elizabeth Elmira West. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. Clara Naughtner, Sacramento, Calif.; Mrs. Gertrude Hall, Utica, Mo.; Mrs. Helen James wife of Capt. Wesley R. James of this city with whom he had made his home for a number of years.

Major McDougall had an enviable war record. He enlisted December 6, 1861, as a private in Company E, 81st Illinois infantry at Carrollton, March 1, 1862. He was promoted to Sergeant. Then followed promotions in rapid succession until he received the rank of First Lieutenant July 1, 1862. He won the rank of captain in 1863 and was given the rank of major after receiving his honorable discharge from the service. He was known by that title through his life.

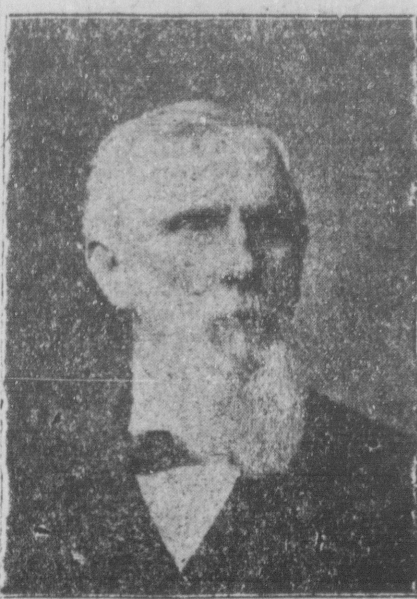

At the close of the war Major McDougall, returned to Petersburg and engaged in the grocery business.

In 1890 he came to Jacksonville and took charge of the boy's department at the School for the Blind, N. W. Branson of Petersburg serving at that time as a trustee of the school. He was most successful in his work but was displaced when Governor Altgeld was elected in 1892.

After leaving the School for the Blind he entered the coal business and for a number of years was one of the leading retail dealers in the city.

During the first administration of John R. Davis, 1901 to 1903 Major McDougall, served as alderman from the Third ward. He gave much time to the duties of his office and served with credit to himself and his constituency.

Major McDougall, took part in many battles during the civil war. He was in the battle of Shiloh, April 6 and 7, 1862, in the siege of Vicksburg in July 1863, the battle of Little Rock, and the Cedars. During the engagement near Murphysboro, Tenn., he was wounded, his right forefinger being shot off.

He also served as assistant adjutant to the general of the Second Brigade Third Division, and was assistant inspector at Little Rock for a time. He served as provost marshal at Franklin, Tenn., for the territory of Middle Tennessee, and was serving under General Joseph P. West at Nashville, when mustered out of service.

While Major McDougall, was always interested in every forward movement in the interest of the community his greatest pleasure was found in Matt Starr post, G. A. R. He devoted much time to the post and when his illness came last June 'was serving as adjutant.

It was largely thru his efforts that the state encampment was held here in 1900. He was chairman of all arrangements for that event and the crowd that was in Jacksonville on Dewey day is still referred to by those who saw it.

He also was one of the main factors in getting the soldiers monument proposition before the people. He devoted much time to the project and was consulted by the county commissioners in all matters pertaining to it. Tho the did not live to see its completion it will ever bring thoughts to those who view it of the faithful service he rendered in its building. Major McDougall was also a member of the Masonic fraternity.

In his death the city loses an honored citizen, one who gave much to the upbuilding of the community during his residence here and the family a kind and loving husband and father.

Funeral services will be held from the residence, 523 South Main street Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Myron L. Pontius. The remains will be taken to Petersburg Thursday afternoon over the Chicago & Alton where interment will be made in Rose Hill cemetery.

Harmony Lodge No. 2 A. F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting this evening at 6:30 o'clock. Work Refreshments. Visiting brethren welcome. A. M. Robinson, W. M. John R. Phillips, Secy.

living at White Hall. He was rejected for war service by the medical board on account of leakage of the heart.

On Saturday the management of the White Hall Sewer Pipe and Stone-ware Co. announced an increase of 2 1/2 cents per hour on all hourly service of the more than 200 employees. The general condition of industrial unrest has been comparatively little in evidence at White Hall since the breaking out of the world war, and the workmen are quite well satisfied with the treatment accorded them without the necessity of there being a labor union formed. Before the present raise was announced, the scale at White Hall exceeded that at Red Wing, Minn., and other clay manufacturing points, where the men are unionized, and where there have been loss of time by strikes and the expense of labor unions that have not existed at White Hall. This means not only good working conditions here, but it also means that the employers are enabled to take on new business that could not be undertaken by loss of time by strikes and lock-outs, enabling White Hall clay manufacturers to forge ahead in the quest of larger trade territory. The White Hall plan affords a good example for consideration in these times of reconstruction.

On January 25th a low record of eight above was recorded, but that is not included in the cold wave class in this connection. No adverse crop conditions are reported, but country roads present a fine looking mass.

M'KINLEY SEEKS TO SUCCEED SHERMAN

Announcement Made of Congressman's Candidacy For U. S. Senate—Candidate Favors Practical Business Methods and Lower Taxes

Champaign, Ill., Feb. 15, 1920.—Formal announcement of his candidacy for United States Senator from Illinois to succeed Senator Sherman was made today by Congressman William B. McKinley, of this city.

The announcement came in the form of a letter from Congressman McKinley to John W. Stipes, president of the "McKinley For Senator Organization," in reply to his report as the head of the voluntary campaign committee of neighbors and business men of the downstate congressman that has been making a political survey of Republican sentiment during the last few months.

It is understood the result of this survey has indicated to such an extent a demand among Illinois Republicans for a down state business man as a candidate for the senatorial office, that a letter was dispatched strongly urging Congressman McKinley to become a candidate for the nomination at the primary next September.

In his letter of acceptance Congressman McKinley indicates his willingness to abide by the wishes of his friends, on condition that the Republican party bend its entire energy toward putting the government machinery back on a practical business basis, reduction of taxes and maintenance of the American standard of living.

Letter From McKinley.
Mr. John W. Stipes,
Champaign, Ill.,
Dear Mr. Stipes:
It is difficult for me to fully express my great appreciation for your urgent request that I announce myself a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

First knowledge of the movement which you and others of my life long friends and neighbors had organized reached me upon my return from a second visit to the European war zone in the spring of 1919. At that time I did not realize your plans contemplated the extensive correspondence with Republican voters of the State that your report indicates you have conducted.

I am especially moved by your statement that the hundreds of letters you have received from men in the various walks of life, pledging their support, should assure me there is a general belief that, as a representative business man, I possess some special qualifications for this honorable position. In my rather varied business life I have had the most satisfaction in earnestly endeavoring to advance the commercial interests of Illinois and to bring added comforts and conveniences to the greatest possible number of its citizens. I have known the privations of poverty, the anxiety of business adventure, and the responsibility of business organization.

Illinois has furnished some of the most illustrious men who have served the nation in the Senate, and in that list the two statesmen who now represent Illinois in that body have proven worthy successors to those who have gone before.

The Republican party, is confronted with most tremendous responsibilities. The world is looking to the United States for help in ways that a few years ago would not have been believed possible. In meeting this responsibility we must first set our own house in order, and hold true to our first duty, that of preserving our American institutions and liberties.

It is for the welfare of the average man and the average family that we as business men must plan, and as lawmakers must legislate.

The most vital problem confronting us is to maintain our present standard of living. At the same time we should conduct the affairs of our government so that taxes will be reduced. The wage earner in our country must be protected against the cheap labor of Japan, China and India. The poor boy must have held open for him the door of opportunity; we must preserve those traditions of liberty that ever encourage the ambitious and the industrious man.

If the Republicans of Illinois will honor me with the nomination for United States Senator, I will accept their judgment with the solemn promise and determination to give my best service to prove worthy of their trust and confidence.

Very Sincerely Yours,
WILLIAM B. MCKINLEY.

CLOSING OUT SALE
Feb. 23rd, farm machinery, livestock, hay and oats. Fred Ranson, 5 miles west of Jacksonville; 1 1/2 miles southeast of Markham.

From County Agent's Office

Membership Campaign—At the present writing the campaign has made better progress than anyone expected. The majority of the former members of the farm bureau are now enrolling in both the county and the state organizations for a three year period beginning March 1, 1920. Where an old member does not enroll under the new plan service will be given under the old contract until our next regular reorganization period, March 1st, 1921.

Legume Campaign—According to the census of 1910, the total acreage of legumes in Morgan county was 9,255 acres. It has been demonstrated by the Illinois Experiment Station that 20 per cent of the tillable land must be kept in legumes in order to keep up the fertility of the soil. We had been hoping to see the number of acres approach the 20 per cent figure or 63,000 acres, but the demand for increased crop production has doubtless caused a decrease in the acreage of legumes instead of an increase. Farmers can afford to sow clover seed even if it is high.

Can a Farmer Afford to Sow Clover Seed?—It requires no more bushels of corn to buy a bushel of clover seed than it did before the war. In Dec., 1915, it took 22.8 bushels of corn to buy one bushel of Toledo Prime red clover seed. In Dec., 1919, on the same basis of figuring, it took exactly the same 22.8 bushels of corn to buy one bushel of clover seed.

Seed Oats—There is always grave danger in emphasizing a new variety of seed, or a new crop. With full knowledge of this danger we are recommending Iowa 103 oats for our black land. These oats are quick maturing, have a short stiff straw, cast little shade, and make a fine nurse crop for clover. Try a small patch of Iowa 103 this season.

Wheat Fields—Some wheat fields ought to be plowed up. The County Agent has examined some fields in which practically every plant is killed by the Hessian fly. A warm rain or even a light snow in March will bring out these insects in full force. Let's hope that the weather will be windy and whip their fragile wings to pieces. This is our only hope.

63 LOCOMOTIVES FREEZE
Columbus, O., Feb. 16.—Freezing of 63 locomotives at the Pennsylvania railroad round house here early today gave rise to an erroneous report in railroad circles that shopmen had walked out. Extra crews of men were at work this morning it was said in an effort to restore traffic to normal. Trains on all of the railroad divisions are reported two to four hours late, due to inability to obtain engines.

CABINET WILL RESIGN
STOCKHOLM, Feb. 16.—The cabinet probably will resign tomorrow it was said in official circles today and will be followed by a Socialist ministry which the present ministers of finance, F. W. Thorsson as premier and H. Branting, former finance minister, of the interior.

WILL BE BROUGHT BACK TO CHICAGO
New York, Feb. 16.—Mrs. Rose Stokes, prominent socialist and society worker who was indicted in Chicago on a charge of criminal syndicalism in connection with the organization of the communist party of America will leave for Chicago tonight under guard of a Chicago police woman.
